U.A.S. Newsletter, no. 90 (July 21, 1964)

Editors(s): Ross T. Christensen

Published by: University Archaeological Society, Brigham Young University

U. A. S. NEWSLETTER

Number 90

Editor: Ross T. Christensen

July 21, 1964

Published six times a year by THE UNIVERSITY ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. The purpose of the Newsletter is to provide members of the Society with up-to-date information regarding archaeological discoveries and research bearing upon the Hebrew-Christian and Latter-day Saint scriptures, through news reports, reviews, and short articles; also with news concerning the Society and its members, and the BYU Department of Archaeology, of which the Society is an affiliate organization. All views expressed in the Newsletter are those of the author of the particular contribution in which they appear and not necessarily those of Brigham Young University or the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Subscription by membership in the Society (three dollars per year; Life Membership, fifty dollars), which also includes subscription to other publications of or issued through the Society.

90.0 ANNUAL UAS MEETING HELD IN SALT LAKE CITY. May 16 was the date of the "Fifteenth Annual Symposium on the Archaeology of the Scriptures." It was held in Salt Lake City at the Senior Citizens Recreation Center, 237 South 10th East Street.

The annual meeting was co-sponsored this year as usual by the UAS and the BYU Department of Archaeology. The Salt Lake Chapter of the Society, with Darrell R. Tondro as director, assisted with arrangements. (The Annual Symposium is normally held on the BYU campus in Provo.)

Thirteen papers were read before the day-long convention as follows: A. Richards Durham, "Antiquity, Scholarship, and the Prophet Joseph Smith;" Curt H. Seemann, "The Israelite Conquest of Canaan" (read by Edward A. Wheeler); James C. Dean, "Recent Discoveries at Jericho;" Louis J. Nackos, "Judah in the Days of Jeremiah and Lehi;" Einar C. Erickson, "New Dates for the Reign of Zedekiah;" M. Harvey Taylor, "Paul Henning, Early Latter-day Saint Archaeologist;" V. Garth Norman, "The Seven Golden Candlesticks of the Apocalypse (Revelation 1:12); Naomi Woodbury, "On the Origin of the Jaredites;" Carl Hugh Jones, "Small Grains in the Agriculture of Book-of-Mormon Peoples;" Tim M. Tucker, "A Comparative Study of Ancient Mesoamerican and Mesopotamian Temple-Towers;" Welby W. Ricks, "A Purported Phoenician Inscription in New Mexico;" Read H. Putman, "Were the Plates of Mormon of Tumbaga?"; and M. Wells Jakeman, "A Possible Remnant of the Nephites in Ancient Yucatán."

In addition, a special message from Dr. Howard S. McDonald, who was president of Brigham Young University when the Department and the Society were founded, was read; and one was delivered by Dr. Francis W. Kirkham. Both were present at a meeting of December 17, 1946, when the Department was created (Newsletter, 33.1). Dr. McDonald is an Honorary Member of the Society and has recently been made president of the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Dr. Kirkham is a Life Member and general officer of the UAS.

Welcoming remarks were delivered by Dr. Ricks, Society president. Dr. Ross T. Christensen, UAS general secretary-treasurer and chairman of the Symposium (Newsletter, 87.12), gave the concluding remarks.

Preparations are going ahead for a complete publication, by Extension Publications of BYU, of the papers delivered at the Symposium. The present plan is to distribute free copies to all members of the Society as soon as it is off the press.

90.1 ARCHAEOLOGY STUDENT GRADUATES.

Janice White Clemmer, formerly of Warm Springs, Oregon, graduated with the Bachelor of Science degree in archaeology at the May 29, 1964, commencement of Brigham Young University.

For about the past year, Janice has been the bride of Terry Clemmer. Terry is now attending the George Washington University School of Medicine, and the couple is living at Arlington, Virginia.

90.2 NEW PUBLICATION LISTS ATTACHED. Two separate lists of publications available from the UAS are attached to the present issue of the UAS Newsletter.

The green list contains publications available free of charge to Society members upon request, at the rate of five per year of membership. See explanation at the beginning of the list.

The blue list contains publications which are available from the Society by purchase, with special prices for UAS members indicated. An order form is appended to each list.

As well as being attached to the present Newsletter, these two lists have also been printed in quantity for sending to new members during the months ahead.

For further details of the free-past-publications privilege see Newsletter, 89.4 (April 21, 1964).

FREE PAST PUBLICATIONS
Available to Members of the University Archaeological Society

(third edition, revised; published at Brigham Young University by the UNIVERSITY ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY, July, 1964; originally issued as a supplement to U. A. S. Newsletter No. 49)

THE FOLLOWING PUBLICATIONS are available free of charge to members of the University Archaeological Society. A maximum of FIVE per year of membership may be ordered. The selections are to be made by the member himself. See order form, below.

In case more than five are desired in any one year, it is suggested that several years of membership be purchased in advance; fee, $3.00 per year. The member should not, however, ask for free publications for any period of membership previous to the current year; this privilege is not cumulative or retroactive (see Newsletter, 89. 4).

A copy of this list is returned to each new member of the Society upon receipt at the central office of his first membership fee. An order may then be placed as soon as the list arrives. If the list is mislaid an extra copy may be requested.
