{Original 1830 Chapter IV—comprising Chapter 15}

1 And it came	to pass that after
	I Nephi had been carried a	away in the Spirit
and after	[I Nephi had] seen	ALL these things
	I [Nephi] returned	to the tent of m	iy father

2 And it cam	e to pass
that	[A->B] I [Nephi] beheld my brethren aa
and	[B->C] they [my brethren] were disputing one with another
	[C->D] [one with another] concerning the things my father had spoken unto them
3 For	[D->E] he [my father] truly spake MANY GREAT things unto them which [things] were hard to be understood [P=was] [E->F] [hard to be understood] save a man should inquire of the Lord {AG}
and	they [my brethren] being hard in their hearts therefore they [my brethren] did NOT look unto the Lord
as	they [my brethren] [had] ought [to look unto the Lord] [deleted]
4 And now	l Nephi was grieved
	because of the hardness of their hearts
	and also because of the things
which	I [ Nephi ] had seen
and [but]	[I Nephi] knew they [these things ] MUST unavoidably come to pass 01
	because of the GREAT wickedness of the children of men
5 And it cam	e to pass
that	l [ Nephi ] was overcome
	because of my afflictions 02
for	I [Nephi] considered that mine_afflictions were GREAT above ALL 03
	because of the $^{destruction/s}$ of my people [^0 [ ] / "s" added in P ]
for	I [Nephi] had beheld their fall

[Par. aa – Climactic "step up" parallelism]	[Heb. 02 – Plurals	amplification	"afflictions"]
[Heb. 01 – Use of "and" to mean "but"]	[Heb. 03 – Use of "a	above ALL" in con	nparison]

[Note: According to Greg Wright (1976:9) and Donald Parry (1992:26), a chiastic parallelism can be overlaid on the preceding verses. A simple chiastic outline of the pertinent parallel elements is as follows:

	[A] (our father)	dd
	[B] (olive tree)
9	[C] (known unto us)
10	[D] (keep the commandments of the Lord)

11	[F] (Do ye NOT REMEMBER
	the thing which the Lord hath said)?

	[C] (KNOWN unto you)
12	[B] (olive tree)

[Note: One of the definitions of "confound" according the King James Bible Dictionary, is "to mingle and blend different things, so that their forms or natures cannot be distinguished; to mix in a mass or crowd, so that individuals cannot be distinguished." If the Lord's covenant way is what we are talking about, then it is not just the Jews or the House of Israel who have been confounded or "blended in" to other people, but it is the Lord's doctrines and the meaning of the Lord's covenant language that have also been "blended in" to other beliefs and thus have been corrupted.]

NEITHER could the temptations and [NEITHER could] the fiery darts of The Adversary overpower them unto blindness to lead them away to destruction

[Note: What were "fiery darts"? And why would "The Adversary" use them? There were different types of arrows used by the military in Bible times. First, there were plain arrows that were similar to the arrows that one would shoot from a bow today. Next, there were arrows (or "darts") that were dipped into tar, set on fire, and then shot through the air. Fire-bearing arrows (or "darts") were reserved to inflict damage upon a fortified place (with fortified walls) during a time of siege before the active invasion. In other words, if the army under attack had fortified its position so that the enemy could not easily break in to destroy it, then the enemy would revert to using the long-range deadly arrows of fire as a means of destruction (Rick Renner, "The Shield of Faith," Dressed to Kill, 229). In Ephesians 6:16 we find: "Above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one."]
