Chapter 16

{Original 1830 Chapter V—comprising Chapters $16 \rightarrow 19:21$ }

The Justice of the Lord's Covenant Way Offends the Wicked Humble Obedience Gives One Hope

[Note: In verses 1—>3 that follow, I have chosen to identify a parallelistic structure called "Inclusion" or "bookends." In this form the same phrase is repeated at both the beginning and at the end of a paragraph; and all that is in-between is "included" (see my Introduction). Donald Parry has identified this same section as a chiastic parallelism (2007: 34-35). I would remind the reader that when it comes to identifying parallelistic structure, two different perspectives do not always imply error, just a difference in point of view.]

1 And now it came to that after	o pass I Nephi had made an end o of speaking to my brethren	1
behold	they [my brethren] said unto me
[A]	*(Thou_hast declared unto_us HARD things) [initial beginning bookend] a MORE than that which we [thy brethren] [deleted in 1837] {AG} are able to bear	а
2 And it came to
	I [Nephi] said unto them I [Nephi] knew that	I [Nephi] had spoken HARD things against the wicked [beginning bookend #2]
[C]	according to (the truth) and the(righteous) have I justified
D] and[that	I Nephi had] testified that (they [the righteous] should be lifted up) at the last day
[E] Wherefore [E]	the guilty taketh(the truth to be HARD [to bear] for it ([the truth] cutteth them)[the guilty] to the very center

[[]Heb. 01 – Use of the phrase "made an end"]

[[]Par. aa – Inclusion or "Bookends"]

3 And now	my brethren	I
[D] and and [C]	if(ye[my brethren]were righteous)[ifyemy brethren]were willing tohearkentothe truth[ifyemy brethrenwere willing to]give heed unto it[the truth]thatye[my brethren]might(walk uprightly)before God	(
[B]	then ye [my brethren] would NOTmurmur
and	because of (the truth) [then] [ye my brethren would NOT] say
[A]	(Thou speakest HARD things against us)  [ final bookend]

[Note: A simple outline of the parallel elements in Donald Parry's proposed chiastic parallelism is as follows:

1	[A]	(Thou hast declared unto us hard things)
2		[B] (the truth)
		[C] (righteous)
		[D] (they should be lifted up)
		[E] (the truth to be hard)
		[E] (it_cutteth them)
3		[D] (ye were righteous)
		[C] (walk uprightly)
		[B] (the truth)
	[A]	(Thou speakest hard things against us) (Parry:1992:28-29)]

4 And it came to pass

that I Nephi did exhort my brethren

with ALL diligence to keep the commandments of the Lord

[[]Note: In the above verses (especially verse 2 –"for it [the truth] cutteth them [the guilty] to the very center") there is an allusion to the ancient covenant ceremony in which the penalties for breaking the covenant were symbolically demonstrated by an animal being CUT down the CENTER into two parts; whereupon the ones making the covenant would walk in between the cut parts, knowing very well at that point what their fate would be for breaking the covenant. I first learned of this practice from Raymond Treat in personal communication, but one can find it on the Internet at "Cutting a Covenant," Did You Know? Bible Studies by Brendon Wahlberg, Friday, November 21, 2008.]

Nephi Is to Assume Leadership (Be the "Ruler")

mm

[Note: For an in-depth discussion on the various aspects of the "ball," the "pointers," and the "writing," see Alan Miner, The Liahona: Miracles by Small Means, 2013.]

[Note: According to Donald Parry, the above verses can be arranged in chiastic parallelism. A simple outline of the chiastic elements that have been overlaid on my parallelism (note the bracketed letters and orange parentheses above) can be seen as follows:

28
[A]	(pointers)
	[B] (aco	ording to the faith and diligence)
29	[C]	(written)
		[D] (which was plain to be read)
		[D] (which did give us understanding)
	[C]	(written)
	[B] (aco	ording to the faith and diligence)
[A]	(small means) (Parry:1992:30)]

[Note: By matching up "pointers" and "small means" Parry begins and ends his chiasm. This is not "wrong," but it narrows the interpretation of this passage. In my structuring, "small means" is aligned with "the ball" and with "faith," "diligence" and "heed," and with "ways" of the Lord, and with "plain" writing. This expands the means of direction given. Rather than debate over who is correct, I find it nice when one kind of parallelism can be "overlaid" on another type of parallelism because it gives one greater perspective in appreciating the message (or messages) that is (or are) being conveyed in that passage of scripture. "Duality" is a constant part of the text of the Book of Mormon.]

[[]Par. nn – Extended alternating parallelism]

And it came to pass

that	they did humble themselves before	the Lord
and	[they] did give thanksunto Him	[the Lord]

[Note: I have structured the above verses according to the classical style for parallelism known as "extended alternating parallelism." However, as I have continually demonstrated, the repetition and location of words and phrases can be accentuated in other ways. (See the previous passages (v. 17-24) using the terms "slay," "obtain," "food," "families," "return," "humble," etc.) What is more important to remember, however, is that the text is written in parallelistic patterns that lend themselves to the various perspectives.]
